

The current "Do Not Call" law is fine just as it is. Please do not change it. Telemarketers are an annoyance at best. I never purchased anything from them and never would. The telemarketing process is ripe for fraud and identity theft especially for the senior population.